4. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE EXPECTATIONS

4.1. GPA REQUIREMENT

4.1.1. At Fayston Preparatory, we have expectations as to student academic performance.
Students are required to meet the graduation requirement of unweighted 2.0 GPA.

4.2. ACADEMIC WATCHLIST & PROBATION

4.2.1. Below 73% on any subject will be on watchlist (equivalent to GPA 2.7)

4.2.2. Students who achieve a grade lower than C (73%) or lower in any course during and/or at the end of each quarter will be reported to the Academic Director concerning their performance.
They may receive an escalating series of warnings that may escalate into a parent conference with the Academic Team.

4.2.3. Students that are performing below C (73%) or lower in any core academic course (English, Math, Science, Social Studies) will be placed on the Watchlist. Their grades and progress may be regularly monitored bi-weekly by the Academic Director and reported to the Vice Principal.

4.2.4. A student will be placed on Academic Probation if they fall below 63% on any subject will be on probation (equivalent to GPA 2.0)

4.2.4.1. This is equivalent to meeting any of the following:

- Two or more F grades
- Failure to improve after prior academic warning
- Chronic disengagement from academic

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

Academic Director, and/or Principal

4.2.4.3.Development of a Formal Academic Improvement Plan (AIP), including:

- Minimum GPA targets
- Weekly academic check-ins
- Required tutoring or support sessions
- Schedule adjustments or elective removals
- Temporary removal from leadership roles or extracurricular activities

4.2.4.1.Academic Probation will bring the following consequences:

- Credit denial in one or more courses
- Ineligibility for promotion to the next grade level
- Mandatory credit recovery
- Restricted access to AP/Honors courses, extracurricular activities, or privileges

4.2.4.1.Continued failure (after one full semester) may result in:

- Required grade retention
- Referral to an academic review committee
- Recommendation for withdrawal in serious cases

4.2.4.1.If the student shows disinterest or non-compliance, the school may:

- Recommend voluntary transfer to a better-fit environment
- Hold a formal parent-student-principal conference regarding continued enrollment

4.2.4.1.Re-evaluation & Duration: Probation continues through the end of the following semester

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

4.3.1.Students will not be permitted to attend any extracurricular activities or run for major club officer positions (e.g., STUCO, NHS, etc.) until they are in good standing, a C (73%) or higher, for the courses they were placed on the Watchlist.

4.3.1.1.These extracurricular activities include Varsity Sports, club activities, etc.

4.3.2.Varsity participation is a privilege, not a right. Students must demonstrate academic responsibility to represent the school in practices, games, and team events.

4.3.2.1.A student may be barred from varsity games and/or practice if any of the following occur:

4.3.2.1.1.GPA Below 2.5 or One F Grade

- Immediate monitoring status
- May continue practice only, but no game participation
- Requires weekly check-ins with counselor or advisor

4.3.2.1.1.GPA Below 2.0 or Two F Grades

- Full suspension from both games and practices
- Mandatory academic intervention plan

4.3.2.1.1.Behavioral or Effort-Based Academic Contract Violations

- Violations of existing AIP or behavior contract tied to academics may lead to game-day bans or full removal from team activities

4.3.2.1.Varsity privileges may be reinstated based on:

4.3.2.1.1.GPA Recovery

- GPA rises to above 2.5 → Game eligibility restored
- GPA between 2.0–2.3 → May return to practice only under supervision

4.3.2.1.1.Completion of Academic Intervention

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

- Consistent attendance and progress at academic intervention plan
- Coach must also approve based on attitude, effort, and readiness

4.3.2.1. Eligibility reviewed every 2 weeks during the season

5. COURSEWORK POLICY

5.1. LATE SUBMISSION OF FORMATIVE ASSIGNMENTS - HOMEWORK

5.1.1. Formative Assessments are defined herein as follows:

5.1.1.1.1. The goal of formative assessment is to monitor student learning to provide ongoing feedback that can be used by instructors to improve their teaching and by students to improve their learning. More specifically, formative assessments:

- help students identify their strengths and weaknesses and target areas that need work
- help faculty recognize where students are struggling and address problems immediately

5.1.1. The purpose of Formative assessments are as follows:

5.1.1.1.1. Formative assessments are generally low stakes, which means that they have low or no point value. Examples of formative assessments include asking students to:

- draw a concept map in class to represent their understanding of a topic
- submit one or two sentences identifying the main point of a lecture
- turn in a research proposal for early feedback

5.1.1. All assignments must be submitted by the designated due date and time.

5.1.1.1.1. Due dates of assignments will fall within School Days, as on Monday to Friday

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

5.1.2.Any assignment not submitted by the due date will be marked as ‘MISSING’ on Sycamore and given the score of 0.

5.1.3.A student may submit the assignment late under following conditions:

5.1.3.1.1.Extension is given by the teacher

5.1.3.1.2.The Student accepts any late submission penalties

5.1.3.1.3.The Student has been given a special allowance based on extreme circumstances by the Academic Directors.

5.1.3.1.4.School Excused

5.2.LATE SUBMISSION OF SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENTS

5.2.1.The goal of summative assessment is to evaluate student learning at the end of an instructional unit by comparing it against some standard or benchmark.

5.2.1.1.Summative assessments are often high stakes, which means that they have a high point value. Examples of summative assessments include:

5.2.1.1.1.a midterm exam

5.2.1.1.2.a final project

5.2.1.1.3.a paper

5.2.1.1.4.a senior recital

5.2.1.2.Late submissions may be considered under exceptional circumstances and with valid reasons, such as illness, family emergencies, or unforeseen events.

5.2.1.3.Students are required to promptly communicate with their instructor regarding their inability to meet the deadline.

5.2.1.4.Requests for late submission should be made in writing and include supporting documentation whenever possible.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

made at least 24 hours before the assignment due date at teachers' discretion.

5.3.1.2.Students requesting due date extension must communicate to their class teacher through the official Fayston email. They must clearly state their name, assignment name, requesting extension date & time, appropriate reason for the request.

5.3.1.3.Under normal circumstances, they may submit the assignment by the newly arranged due date without penalties. However, depending on the circumstances, the teacher may assign some penalties or adjustments to the assignment to meet the grading fairness expectations.

5.3.1.4.Under normal circumstances, a teacher may grant any extension on the whole assignment across all classes within the syllabus.

5.3.1.5.Under normal circumstances, a teacher may grant up to 5 school days of extension to an individual student.

5.3.1.6.A teacher has no obligation to provide an individual student with extension if such action may breach grading fairness expectations across all classes within the syllabus.

5.3.1.7.Individual teachers may NOT grant individual extensions for following types of assignments:

5.3.1.7.1.Major summative assessments such as projects or exams (must be approved by the appropriate Academic Director), or

5.3.1.7.2.Assignments graded for accuracy and the answers were revealed in class (to prevent cheating), or

5.3.1.7.3.participatory activities (needs alternative assessment instead of extension)

5.4.LATE SUBMISSION PENALTIES

5.4.1.1.Students who did not receive extension may still choose to submit assignments even after the due date, and it is strongly recommended that they do so.

5.4.1.2.It is essential for teachers to communicate the late submission policy clearly and consistently to all students at the beginning of the course.

5.4.1.4.1.Provision: Valid reasons might warrant exceptions to the 10 day limit, such as documented medical issues, family emergencies, or other extenuating circumstances.

5.4.1.4.2.Exceptional Cases: Discuss with DH & Academic Team

5.4.1.4.3.School Excused Absence

5.4.1.5.Following general rule for late penalties apply

| Days Late | Penalty |
|---|---|
| 1 Day Late | 90% cap on total score.Maximum achievable grade is 90%. |
| 2 Days Late | 80% cap on total score. |
| 3 Days Late | 70% cap on total score. |
| 4 Days ~ 10 Days Late | 60% cap on total score. |
| 10+ Days Late | 50% cap on total score. |

5.5.NEW STUDENT EXEMPTIONS

5.5.1.1.Students who are enrolled in the middle of a semester are given exemptions to all participation, homework, and classwork assigned before the first day of attending.

5.5.1.2.New students are given 10 school days from the first day of attending the school as an adjustment period, during which they are exempt from late penalties for any assignments due during the adjustment period.

5.5.1.3.New students are expected to complete all assignments given during the adjustment period.

5.5.1.4.Summer or winter reading

6. ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

6.1.At Fayston, we believe that education is meant to develop students into lifelong learners. Both as a violations are cumulative for the entire duration of middle and high school tenure at Faysion or expulsion depending upon the severity of the matter at the discretion of the Executive Leadership team.

6.2. PLAGIARISM

6.2.1. Students are expected to diligently use either the Plagiarismcheck.org or the Google Plagiarism checker on their work to prevent any case of plagiarism.

6.2.2. If the student's work is officially submitted (not drafts) where a case of plagiarism has been identified, then the student is considered to have breached the Fayston Academic Honesty Policy.

6.2.3. CITATION ERRORS & MISTAKES (LACKING CITATION SKILLS)

6.2.3.1. If the case of plagiarism is based on lack of knowledge about citation format or plagiarism, then the student's case will be given following consequence:

6.2.3.1.1. Interview with an Academic Director

6.2.3.1.2. Intensive Plagiarism & Citation Education course

6.2.3.1.3. Assignment score is automatically set as '0'.

6.2.3.1.4. Students will be given a chance to correct the mistake, and resubmit assignment at 90% cap on score.

6.2.3.2. The student must complete the Plagiarism & Citation Education course assigned by the Academic Director by the required deadline to a satisfactory level before being granted the chance to resubmit the assignment for a maximum grade of 90%.

6.2.4. INTENTIONAL PLAGIARISM

6.2.4.1. Malicious case of plagiarism is when the student who already has learned about citation format or plagiarism but still has deliberately committed plagiarism, and/or attempted to hide the evidence of plagiarism against plagiarism checking programs. In consequence will be the same for both malicious and non-malicious plagiarism.

the student meets one of the following criteria for requesting the course change.
Criteria are as follows:

8.2.1.1.The student is lacking a graduation requirement and does not have it scheduled.

8.2.1.2.Students previously failed courses with the same teacher.

8.2.1.3.Did not meet the course prerequisite during the Course Registration period but has since successfully fulfilled the requirements.

8.2.2.Course Drop: College Counselor will check if the student can drop the course without affecting their graduation requirements.

8.2.2.1.Students should be aware of the following course withdrawal policy clauses:

8.2.2.1.1.Dropping a class after the after Week 2 is considered a Withdrawal.
The student may withdraw from a course after the Course Change Period has ended if the Academic Department approves.

8.2.2.1.2.The student may receive a "W" grade for the course when the student withdraws. If the student wishes to withdraw from a course, the student must do so by the withdrawal deadline established by the Academic Department for each semester.

8.2.2.1.2.1.W grade will be recorded on the transcript but does NOT count towards the GPA calculation or towards the graduation credit.

8.2.2.1.3.After Week 8, the student will receive the grade of WF (Withdrawal Fail).

8.2.2.1.3.1.WF grade will be recorded on the transcript and count towards the GPA calculation same as F grade (Failing).

8.2.2.2.Max 2 withdrawals per year, 4 total in high school

8.3.Academic Directors will confirm course changes based on availability and suitability.

8.4.Additionally, Student or Parent Discusses with the Vice Principal if concerns continue.

8.5.Finally, Parent Discusses with the Principal if

9.1. To help process classroom concerns in a timely and efficient manner, students are encouraged to follow the communication procedure regarding any issues.

9.2. ACADEMIC ISSUES

9.2.1. INITIAL COMMUNICATION

9.2.1.1. All questions, problems or complaints about academic issues such as assignments, grades, comments, etc, should be brought to the class teacher first.

9.2.1.2. Contact the teacher through the official Fayston email, clearly stating student name, academic concern logically explained (when, where, who, what, how, why).

9.2.1.3. Email must have a clear title with following format:
ACADEMIC CONCERN: Grade Level / SIS Name / Course Name

9.2.1.4. Any discussion with the teacher regarding the issue MUST be done through the official email accounts. DO NOT contact the teacher through other digital communication methods.

9.2.2. ACADEMIC ISSUES - ESCALATION

9.2.2.1. If the first series of communication regarding the academic issue is unsatisfactory, then the student can escalate the inquiry to the Academic Director.

9.2.2.2. The student will forward the entire email chain with the teacher to the Academic Director for this inquiry.

9.2.2.3. Any issue must be resolved within the academic semester unless prearranged extension is provided by the Academic Director for valid reasons (e.g., issue transpires at the end of the semester, etc.).

9.2.2.4. If the first series of communication regarding the academic issue is unsatisfactory, then the student can escalate the inquiry to the Vice Principal.

9.3. STUDENT LIFE ISSUES

9.3.2.3.Email must have a clear title with following format:
STUDENT LIFE CONCERN: Grade Level / SIS Name

9.3.2.4.Any discussion with the Dean regarding the issue MUST be done through the official email accounts.
DO NOT contact the Dean through other digital communication methods.

9.3.3.STUDENT LIFE ISSUES - ESCALATION

9.3.3.1.If the Dean deems it appropriate, then the case may be escalated to the Vice Principal, or to the Principal.

STUDENT POLICIES & EXPECTATIONS

10.ATTENDANCE POLICY

10.1.At Fayston, students are required and expected to attend all and every mandated school day during the academic year.

10.1.1.This is usually accounted for 180 school days across an academic year, although this may be reduced or increased depending on an academic year.

10.2.At Fayston, student attendance is calculated through the SIS via accumulation of Attendance Points.
10.2.1.Attendance points are accumulated PER COURSE

10.3.Attendance Points will be issued as follows:
10.3.1.AU (Absence Unexcused) = 1.0 Attendance Points deducted
10.3.2.AE (Absent Excused) = 0.5 Attendance Point
10.3.2.1.To receive AE, the student must submit sufficient documentation with an exact date (doctor's notes, etc).
10.3.3.SE (School Excused) = 0 Attendance Points

10.4.Course Failure
10.4.1.If a student receives in excess of 8 Attendance Points, the student will automatically fail that course as they have not attended enough class days to pass the clas.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

any consideration or leniency from teachers.

10.5.3.CONSEQUENCES

10.5.3.1.The student's parents will be contacted immediately to verify the location and safety of the student.

10.5.3.2.If the student has committed truancy, it will be grounds for disciplinary action.

10.5.3.3.Students missing a major assignment (e.g., test, project, essay, etc.) will lose 10% of the maximum grade per school day missed following the homework policy.

10.5.4.HIGH SCHOOL TRUANCY PROCEDURE

| 3rd Case | ● Immediate expulsion● Official record registered on the transcript |

10.6.ABSENCE EXCUSED (AE)

10.6.1.Absence Excused (AE) is any absence with a note from parents/guardians explaining the reason for absence.

10.6.2.Examples include: Child's illness or injury, a family emergency, death of a family member, a governmental issue, a doctor, or a dental appointment that cannot be scheduled before or after school hours, a natural disaster, etc is considered AE.

10.6.3.To change AU to AE, a documented proof of appropriate excuse is required, such as a diagnosis note from a doctor, or other certificates. A simple note from parents without a valid excuse does not suffice.

10.6.4.Students are expected to contact the classroom teachers to complete and submit all assignments due during the time of AE with accommodations or leniency from teachers such as extensions, partial exemption or alternative assessment.

10.6.4.1.Students missing a major assignment (e.g., test, project, essay, etc.) will lose 10% per school day missed unless prior arrangement is made with the classroom teacher.

10.6.4.2.Students will not be penalized for major reasons that cannot be predicted: Child's hospitalization (emergency room), death of a family member, etc.

10.6.5.PROCEDURE

10.6.5.1.PARENT's call/email only

10.7.TARDY/LATENESS

10.7.1.LATE ARRIVAL

10.7.1.1.If a student arrives after 8:25 am, students need to come to the Vision Center Registrar will be recorded as absent for the day.

10.7.2.TARDY UNEXCUSED: 0.25 Attendance Points

10.7.2.1.After the bell rings, students are considered tardy.

10.7.2.2.If students have four Tardies, it would be calculated as one ABSENCE UNEXCUSED (AU).

10.7.2.3.Only used when student comes to class without an official signed pass (or verified message) directly from a teacher's classroom or staff office

10.7.3.TARDY EXCUSED: 0 Attendance Points

10.7.3.1.If students have a late pass from the teacher, the student would be counted as 'TARDY EXCUSED.'

10.7.3.2.If students come after 15 minutes of class, it would be counted as 'Absence Unexcused'.

10.8.Consequences for Excessive Unexcused Tardies: (by each course, by semester)

10.8.1.Fifth Tardy: The parent/guardian will be notified by the school's Academic Coordinator.

10.8.2.Sixth Tardies: If a student receives more than 6 unexcused tardies in a single class he/she will have one day of school detention.

10.8.3.Eighth Tardies: If a student receives more than 8 unexcused tardies in a single class he/she will have 1 day in-school suspension arranged by the Dean and Parent call with the Vice Principal

10.8.4.Tenth Tardies: If a student receives more than 10 unexcused tardies in a single class he/she will have a parent meeting with the Principal regarding the student's future at Fayston. In addition, there will be 3 days out of school suspension (conditional expulsion). Furthermore, official record registered on the transcript for unsatisfactory completion of the suspension program at the discretion of the disciplinary committee.

10.9.Excessive Absences: (new: Aug 6, 2025)

10.9.1.When students receive Absences in a course exceed 4 AU per semester without prior approval, the following progressive procedures will occur:

10.9.1.1.5 Absences → Initial warning

10.9.1.2.7 Absences → Academic probation notice

10.9.1.3.9+ Absences → Course credit is denied unless an exception is granted

10.9.1.4.Final decision made by the Principal, Academic Director, and School Counselor

10.10.EARLY LEAVES

10.10.1.Excused Early Leaves

If students need to leave school early, they MUST be signed out by the Attendance Officer based on a reasonable excuse.

These reasons include but not limited to:

10.10.1.1.Student health concerns

10.10.1.2.Family emergencies

10.10.1.3.Medical appointments

10.10.1.4.Government appointments (military service health check, etc)

10.10.1.4.1.For any reasons that are not an emergency, then the parent/guardian must contact the school Attendance Office by 8:15 AM of that morning.

10.10.1.4.2.For student health concerns, the student must first be checked by the School Nurse first. Early leave based on student health concerns can only be issued by the School Nurse.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

10.10.4.1.Students can get a permission slip that must be signed by parents from either our Academic Coordinators in UH Academic Office.

10.10.5.Unexcused Early Leaves:

10.10.5.1.Leaves without notice will result in immediate disciplinary action.

10.10.5.2.Students are not permitted to leave campus at all during school hours, 8:25 AM to 4:15 PM.

10.10.5.2.1.This includes trips to the local convenience stores or the wooded areas around campus.

10.10.5.3.HIGH SCHOOL PROCEDURE

11. FAYSTON SCHOOL LIFE POLICIES

11.1. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

11.1.1. Students must be aware of the student behavior codes, disciplinary procedures and know how they will be dealt with if such codes are breached. Since all students are required to read the updated student handbook each academic year (or semester as needed), ignorance will not excuse students from misbehavior. It is the students' responsibility to carefully study and to refer to the handbook as needed.

11.1.2. If you see a breach of the School Policy or unsafe actions of other students, a student must immediately report it to the Dean before the situation becomes potentially worse.

11.1.2.1. A teacher will give firm verbal warnings to stop the inappropriate action, including a parent email.

11.1.2.2. If the student refuses to comply with the initial warning, then the student will be reported for "Disobedience and rebellious behaviors towards teachers and staff" on the School Policy on top of the rule breached by the inappropriate action itself.

11.1.2.3. The teacher will complete an INCIDENT REPORT and submit it to the Dean of Student Life.

11.1.2.4. At the discretion and judgment of the Dean, a disciplinary committee may be assembled.

11.2. INTOLERABLE ACTIONS & BEHAVIORS*

11.2.1. Bullying, Drinking, Drugs, School Violence, Smoking, Stealing, Cheating/Plagiarism, Sexual Misconduct, Truancy
Depending on severity at the discretion of the disciplinary committee, consequences may change*

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

11.2.2.1.SCHOOL VIOLENCE: actions committed against students or staff inside or outside of school premises resulting in a physical or mental injury, or damage to property through a battery, assault, confinement, threat, kidnapping, abduction, defamation, insult, extortion, coercion, forced errand, sexual violence, bullying, or cyber-bullying, or with obscene or violent information via an information and communications network.

11.2.2.2.BULLYING: any form of constant or repeated actions whereby at least two students inflict physical or emotional harm on a specific student or a specific group of students inside or outside of school premises, and then inflict pain thereon.

11.2.2.3.CYBER-BULLYING: any form of constant or repeated actions whereby students inflict emotional harm on other students by using the Internet, cell phones or other information and communications devices to reveal personal information about a specific student or to spread lies or rumors about a specific student, and then inflict pain thereon.

11.2.2.4.DRINKING:
The possession, consumption, or distribution of alcoholic beverages is strictly prohibited on school premises or at any school-related events, regardless of location. Underage drinking is illegal and will be reported to legal guardians and, if necessary, to appropriate authorities. Even for students of legal drinking age, alcohol use is forbidden in connection with any school activity or environment.

11.2.2.5.DRUGS:
The use, possession, distribution, or sale of illegal drugs, unauthorized prescription medication, or any controlled substance is strictly forbidden on or off campus. This includes recreational drugs, drug paraphernalia, and any attempt to influence others to use such substances. All drug-related offenses will result in serious disciplinary action and may be referred to legal authorities.

11.2.2.6.SMOKING:
Smoking and the use of any tobacco products, including electronic cigarettes (vapes), heated tobacco, and other similar devices, are strictly prohibited on school property and during school events. Possession or use of such items by underage students is illegal. Even if of legal age, students are not permitted to smoke in connection with school.

11.2.2.7.STEALING:
The unauthorized taking or possession of

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

consequences.

11.2.2.8.SEXUAL MISCONDUCT:
As a Christian school committed to upholding biblical values and fostering a respectful, safe, and morally grounded environment, all forms of sexual misconduct are strictly prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to, sexual intercourse, inappropriate physical intimacy (such as heavy petting or making out), and any behavior that is sexually suggestive or compromising in nature. These expectations apply both on and off campus, during and outside of school-related activities. Students are expected to honor personal boundaries, demonstrate self-respect, and uphold the school's values in all aspects of their relationships and conduct.

11.2.2.9.TRUANCY:
Students at Fayston are expected to attend all mandated school days and events unless there is a legitimate, documented reason for absence. Intentional and unexcused absences (truancy) significantly undermine a student's own academic progress and jeopardize their ability to succeed. Furthermore, truancy erodes the core values of education that Fayston Preparatory embodies, impacting the school's commitment to fostering a dedicated and academically sound learning environment for all.

11.2.2.10.TRESPASSING
Fayston students should be on campus only during school hours on school days. After school or on non-school days, students should not be on campus without permission and supervision from a member of staff (i.e. After school sports, music practice, Learning Center, etc). Students who enter campus during non-school hours will face disciplinary consequences, including or up to police referral.

11.2.3.REPORTING INSTANCES OF VIOLENCE OR BULLYING

11.2.3.1.Students are expected to immediately report incidents of bullying to the Safeguarding Officer, Vice Principal.

11.2.3.2.Students can rely on staff to promptly investigate each complaint of bullying in a thorough and confidential manner.

11.2.3.3.If the complainant student or the parent of the student feels that appropriate resolution of the investigation or complaint has not been reached, the student or the parent of the student should contact the Principal or the Vice Principal.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

11.2.4.1.The Student Code of Conduct includes, but is not limited to:

11.2.4.1.1.Any student who engages in bullying may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken on a case by case basis.

11.2.4.1.2.The procedures for intervening in bullying behavior include, but are not limited, to the following:

11.2.4.2.All staff, students and their parents will receive a summary of this policy prohibiting intimidation and bullying: at the beginning of the school year, as part of the student handbook and/or information packet, as part of new student orientation, and as part of the school system's notification to parents.

11.2.4.3.The school will make reasonable efforts to keep a report of bullying and the results of the investigation confidential.

11.2.4.4.Staff who witness acts of bullying shall take immediate steps to intervene when it is safe to do so. People witnessing or experiencing bullying are strongly encouraged to report the incident; such reporting will not reflect on the target or witnesses in any way.

11.4.4.2.2.If a breach of Dress Code Policy happens, the student will be required to change his or her clothes.

12. ENGLISH ONLY POLICY (EOP)

12.1.Purpose: To get students at Fayston Preparatory ready for life abroad after completing High School, the English Only Policy (EOP) encourages:

12.1.1.EQUALITY - promotes a fair learning environment where all students have an equal opportunity to participate and understand the lessons.

12.1.2.GLOBALIZATION - improves English language skills for non-native speakers, which is valuable in a globalized world where English is often used as a common language.

12.1.3.EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES - prepares students for higher education at English-speaking institutions

12.1.4.WORK OPPORTUNITIES - creates the availability of internships and job opportunities where English proficiency is required

12.1.5.DIVERSITY - fosters unity and cultural exchange through embracing diversity and using English as a bridge for understanding, essential for joining multicultural communities.

12.2.Scope and Duration

12.2.1.EOP is in effect on all Fayston campuses

12.2.1.1.As soon as students step on campus until 4:15 PM, they will be expected to speak in English.

12.2.1.2.In addition to the classroom, EOP is enforced in the restrooms, at lunch, in the hallways, on the 12.2.2.1.EOP can be included in any class as a fraction of the participation grade at teacher's discretion

12.3.Exceptions to the EOP are listed below:

12.3.1.Korean classes, where Korean will be the main language of instruction

12.3.2.Chinese or Spanish classes, where Chinese or Spanish may be the main language of instruction

12.3.3.Some Bible classes, where Korean may be the main language of instruction, depending on the instructor

12.3.4.Some specific classes, where Korean is the main language of the instructor

12.3.5.When the teacher provides permission

12.3.6.During Lunchtime in the designated EOP-Free Zone.

12.4.Breach of the English-Only Policy
The student will be subjected to the EOP Disciplinary Procedure as follows

12.4.1.Three(3) strikes require "remediation"

12.4.1.1.Remediation can be

12.4.1.1.1.a form of manual labor (e.g. cleaning),

12.4.1.1.2.educational recitation (e.g speech, poetry, etc),

12.4.1.1.3.or other forms of correction.

12.4.1.2.Parents are emailed on every violation starting from the 2nd violation, reminding the family of the consequences of continuing to break EOP.

12.4.2.Official Restrictions

12.4.2.1.After receiving a 5th violation, the student will not be allowed to 12.4.2.1.1.Be a part of any sports team for that school year. Students who are already a part of the team will be kicked off the team

12.4.2.1.2.Removed from leadership positions in any clubs they are a part of.

procedures and expectations for managing student health issues, medication, and early leave due to illness or medical needs. All students, parents, and guardians are expected to adhere to the guidelines below to ensure a safe and healthy school environment.

13.2. Reporting of Specific Allergies and Medical Conditions

13.2.1. Students with specific allergies, medical conditions, or dietary restrictions must inform the school and the school nurse at the beginning of the academic year or as soon as the condition is diagnosed.

13.2.2. A formal Medical Action Plan (MAP) should be submitted to the nurse, detailing the student's condition, required care, and emergency protocols.

13.2.3. Parents/guardians must provide the school with up-to-date emergency contact information and ensure that the school is aware of any changes to the student's health status.

13.3. Medication Storage and Liability

13.3.1. Prescription medications requiring specific storage conditions (e.g., refrigeration) or special handling must be left with the school nurse.

13.3.2. Medications must be delivered in their original packaging with clear labeling, including the student's name, medication name, dosage, and administration instructions.

13.3.3. A signed medication authorization form from the student's healthcare provider must accompany all prescription medications.

13.3.4. The school is not liable for any adverse reactions or incidents that occur if medications are not properly stored or administered according to policy.

13.4. Medication Issuance and Administration

13.4.1. Only the school nurse or a designated substitute nurse is authorized to issue and administer medication to students.

13.4.2. Students are not allowed to carry or self-administer any medication, including over-the-counter drugs, unless specifically authorized by a healthcare provider and approved by the school nurse (e.g., inhalers, epinephrine auto-injectors).

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

13.5.1.The nurse has the authority to discharge a student from school early if deemed necessary due to medical reasons.

13.5.2.The nurse will contact the parent or guardian to confirm the need for early dismissal.

13.5.3.Before leaving campus, the student must submit an Early Leave Notice to the Academic Office on UH 1st floor and receive an Early Leave Pass.

13.5.4.Students leaving without an Early Leave Pass will be considered absent without permission, and disciplinary actions may apply.

13.6.Immunization Compliance and Documentation

13.6.1.At the time of enrollment, families must accurately complete and submit the immunization form provided by the school. It is crucial that this form is filled out truthfully, as providing false or misleading information can pose a serious risk to the health and safety of the school community.

13.6.2.The school relies on this documentation to ensure that all students are protected against communicable diseases.

13.7.Chronic Illness and Medical Equipment

13.7.1.Students who require medical equipment (e.g., crutches, wheelchairs, glucose monitors) or have chronic illnesses should inform the school nurse and provide necessary documentation from their healthcare provider.

13.7.2.The school will accommodate students with chronic illnesses or disabilities to the best of the available resources and within the capabilities of the school environment.

13.7.3.Parents and guardians are encouraged to communicate with the school to discuss any specific needs or adjustments required to support their child’s health and well-being.

13.7.4.1h. Confidentiality of Medical Information

13.7.5.All medical information provided to the school will be kept confidential and shared only with personnel who need to know to ensure the student’s safety and well-being.

13.7.6.Parents and guardians have the right to request access to their child’s health records as maintained
