3. ACADEMIC PERFORMANCE EXPECTATIONS

3.1. GPA REQUIREMENT

3.1.1. At Fayston Preparatory, we have expectations as to student academic performance.
Students are required to meet the graduation requirement of unweighted 2.5 GPA.

3.2. ACADEMIC WATCHLIST STUDENTS

3.2.1. Students who achieve a grade lower than D (63%) or lower in any course during and/or at the end of each quarter will be reported to the Academic Director concerning their performance.
They may receive an escalating series of warnings that may escalate into a parent conference with the Executive Leadership.

3.2.2. Students that are performing below D (63%) or lower in any core academic course (English, Math, Science, Social Studies) will be placed on the Watchlist. Their grades and progress may be regularly monitored bi-weekly by the Academic Coordinators and reported to the Vice Principal.

3.3. CONSEQUENCES

3.3.2.1. Students will not be permitted to attend any extracurricular activities or run for major club officer positions (e.g., STUCO, NHS, etc.) until they are in good standing, a C- (70%) or higher, for the courses they were placed on the Watchlist.

3.3.2.2. These extracurricular activities include Varsity Sports, club activities, etc.

4. COURSEWORK POLICY

4.1. LATE SUBMISSION OF FORMATIVE ASSIGNMENTS - HOMEWORK

4.1.1. Formative Assessments are defined herein as follows:

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

- help students identify their strengths and weaknesses and target areas that need work
- help faculty recognize where students are struggling and address problems immediately

4.1.1.The purpose of Formative assessments are as follows:

4.1.1.2.1.Formative assessments are generally low stakes, which means that they have low or no point value. Examples of formative assessments include asking students to:

- draw a concept map in class to represent their understanding of a topic
- submit one or two sentences identifying the main point of a lecture
- turn in a research proposal for early feedback

4.1.1.All assignments must be submitted by the designated due date and time.

4.1.1.2.1.Due dates of assignments will fall within School Days, as in Monday to Friday and not including weekends or public holidays.

4.1.1.2.2.Assignment dues are also set between 5:00 PM and 10:00 PM with at least 48 hours of prior notice.

4.1.2.Any assignment not submitted by the due date will be marked as ‘MISSING’ on the Powerschool and given the score of 0.

4.1.3.A student may submit the assignment late under following conditions:

4.1.3.2.1.Extension is given by the teacher

4.1.3.2.2.Student accepts any late submission penalties

4.1.3.2.3.Student has been given special allowance based on extreme circumstances by the Academic Directors.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

student learning at the end of an instructional unit by comparing it against some standard or benchmark.

4.2.1.1.Summative assessments are often high stakes, which means that they have a high point value. Examples of summative assessments include:

4.2.1.1.1.a midterm exam

4.2.1.1.2.a final project

4.2.1.1.3.a paper

4.2.1.1.4.a senior recital

4.2.1.2.Late submissions may be considered under exceptional circumstances and with valid reasons, such as illness, family emergencies, or unforeseen events.

4.2.1.3.Students are required to promptly communicate with their instructor regarding their inability to meet the deadline.

4.2.1.4.Requests for late submission should be made in writing and include supporting documentation whenever possible.

4.3.EXTENSIONS

4.3.1.1.Teachers may give extensions to students for their assignments if the official request is made at least 24 hours before the assignment due date at teachers' discretion.

4.3.1.2.Students requesting due date extension must communicate to their class teacher through the official Fayston email. They must clearly state their name, assignment name, requesting extension date & time, appropriate reason for the request.

4.3.1.3.Under normal circumstances, they may submit the assignment by the newly arranged due date without penalties. However, depending on the circumstances, the teacher may assign some penalties or adjustments to the assignment to meet the grading fairness expectations.

4.3.1.4.Under normal circumstances, a teacher may grant any extension on the whole assignment across all classes within the syllabus.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

individual student with extension if such action may breach grading fairness expectations across all classes within the syllabus.

4.3.1.7.Individual teachers may NOT grant individual extensions for following types of assignments:

4.3.1.7.1.Major summative assessments such as projects or exams (must be approved by the appropriate Academic Director), or

4.3.1.7.2.Assignments graded for accuracy and the answers were revealed in class (to prevent cheating), or

4.3.1.7.3.participatory activities (needs alternative assessment instead of extension)

4.4.LATE SUBMISSION PENALTIES

4.4.1.1.Students who did not receive extension may still choose to submit assignments even after the due date, and it is strongly recommended that they do so.

4.4.1.2.It is essential for teachers to communicate the late submission policy clearly and consistently to all students at the beginning of the course.

4.4.1.3.Late submission without extension will result in penalties.

4.4.1.4.Teachers will not accept late submissions after 10 school days.

4.4.1.4.1.Provision: Valid reasons might warrant exceptions to the 10 day limit, such as documented medical issues, family emergencies, or other extenuating circumstances.

4.4.1.4.2.Exceptional Cases: Discuss with DH & Academic Team

4.4.1.5.Following general rule for late penalties apply

Days Late	Penalty
1 Day Late	90% cap on total score. Maximum achievable grade is 90%.
2 Days Late	80% cap on total score.
3 Days Late	70% cap on total score.
4 Days ~ 10 Days Late	60% cap on total score.

semester are given exemptions to all participation, homework, and classwork assigned before the first day of attending.

4.5.1.2.New students are given 10 school days from the first day of attending the school as an adjustment period, during which they are exempt from late penalties for any assignments due during the adjustment period.

4.5.1.3.New students are expected to complete all assignments given during the adjustment period.

5. ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

5.1.At Fayston, we believe that education is meant to develop students into lifelong learners. Both as a student and as a Christian, dishonesty is a grave offense, and it only harms the learner. Therefore, no form of plagiarism or cheating is acceptable at Fayston. At Fayston Preparatory School, we must all strive to foster a community of trust, and students should expect academic integrity from their peers. All violations are cumulative for the entire duration of middle and high school tenure at Fayston. Students with multiple violations may receive immediate suspension or expulsion depending upon the severity of the matter at the discretion of the Executive Leadership team.

5.2.PLAGIARISM

5.2.1.Students are expected to diligently use either the Turnitin or the Google Plagiarism checker on their work to prevent any case of plagiarism.

5.2.2.If the student's work is officially submitted (not drafts) where a case of plagiarism has been identified, then the student is considered to have breached the Fayston Academic Honesty Policy.

5.2.3.CITATION ERRORS & MISTAKES (LACKING CITATION SKILLS)

5.2.3.1.If the case of plagiarism is based on lack of knowledge about citation format or plagiarism, then the student's case will be given following consequence:

5.2.3.1.1.Interview with an Academic Director

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

5.2.3.1.4.Students will be given a chance to correct the mistake, and resubmit assignment at 90% cap on score.

5.2.3.2.The student must complete the Plagiarism & Citation Education course assigned by the Academic Director by the required deadline to a satisfactory level before being granted the chance to resubmit the assignment for a maximum grade of 60%.

5.2.4.INTENTIONAL PLAGIARISM

5.2.4.1.Malicious case of plagiarism is when the student who already has learned about citation format or plagiarism but still has deliberately committed plagiarism, and/or attempted to hide the evidence of plagiarism against plagiarism checking programs. In consequence will be the same for both malicious and non-malicious plagiarism.

5.2.4.2.Cases of plagiarism are recorded in the Power School throughout their current school career (Middle School or High School).

6. COURSE REGISTER PROCEDURES

6.1. Course registration starts in the Spring Semester, with exact dates announced by the Academic Department.

6.2. Course registration is completed by grade-level. Once the registration is completed, any changes to course registration must be requested & processed during the course change period (first two weeks of Fall Semester).

6.3. First, Student Consult Registration Packet

6.3.1. Students are strongly encouraged to discuss with their designated College Counselor for their Pathway consultation.

6.4. Second, Course Registration with College Counselor

6.4.1. Students bring their Registration Packet to their designated College Counselor for registration.

6.4.2. College Counselors be consulted before students can submit the ADDITIONAL AP COURSE REGISTRATION form.

6.4.3. Any specific course registration requests must be made to the College Counselor via

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

6.5.1. If the student remains dissatisfied with the outcome after consulting with the College Counselor, they may submit an official appeal to the Vice Principal.

6.5.2. The appeal should be made in writing, clearly outlining the reasons for the appeal, relevant supporting documentation, and any additional information that may assist in reconsidering the decision.

6.6. Review and Evaluation

6.6.1. The Vice Principal will thoroughly review the appeal, including the initial request, relevant correspondence, and any supporting documentation provided by the student.

6.6.2. The Vice Principal may consult with the Dean, College Counselor and/or Academic Directors, and Principal (as needed) for further input and clarification on the matter.

6.7. Decision and Communication

6.7.1. The student (and parent) will be notified of the decision in writing, including the rationale behind the decision and any further steps or actions required.

6.8. Finality of Decision

6.8.1. The decision made by the committee will be final and binding.

6.8.2. The student (and parent) is expected to abide by the decision and comply with any instructions or actions outlined in the communication.

7. COURSE CHANGE/DROP PROCEDURES

7.1. The course changes must be made for the regular classes in the first two weeks of the Fall semester.

7.1.1. The deadline to request changes for AP classes is the end of the first quarter.

7.2. Mid-semester course change or course drop is a significant issue, and therefore must follow the necessary procedures.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

7.4.1.Course Change: College Counselor will check if the student meets one of the following criteria for requesting the course change.
Criteria are as follows:

7.4.1.1.The student is lacking a graduation requirement and does not have it scheduled.

7.4.1.2.Students previously failed courses with the same teacher.

7.4.1.3.Did not meet the course prerequisite during the Course Registration period but has since successfully fulfilled the requirements.

7.4.2.Course Drop: College Counselor will check if the student can drop the course without affecting their graduation requirements.

7.4.2.1.Students should be aware of the following course withdrawal policy clauses:

7.4.2.1.1.Dropping a class after the Course Change Period has ended is considered a Withdrawal.
The student may withdraw from a course after the Course Change Period has ended if the Academic Department approves.

7.4.2.1.2.The student may receive a "W" grade for the course when the student withdraws. If the student wishes to withdraw from a course, the student must do so by the withdrawal deadline established by the Academic Department for each semester.

7.4.2.1.2.1.W grade will be recorded on the transcript but does NOT count towards the GPA calculation or towards the graduation credit.

7.4.2.1.3.After that deadline (~55 school days [or before Early Decision]) after the official start of classes in each semester), the student will receive the grade of WF (Withdrawal Fail).

7.4.2.1.3.1.WF grade will be recorded on the transcript and count towards the GPA calculation same as F grade (Failing).

7.5.Third, Student Discusses with Academic Directors

7.5.1.Academic Directors will confirm course changes based on availability and suitability.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

[For 23/24 Academic Year]

The deadline to request schedule changes for regular classes (non-AP) is September 8 .

The deadline to request schedule changes for AP classes is October 13 (end of Q1).

8. COMMUNICATION PROCEDURES

8.1. To help process classroom concerns in a timely and efficient manner, students are encouraged to follow the communication procedure regarding any issues.

8.2. ACADEMIC ISSUES

8.2.1. INITIAL COMMUNICATION

8.2.1.1. All questions, problems or complaints about academic issues such as assignments, grades, comments, etc, should be brought to the class teacher first.

8.2.1.2. Contact the teacher through the official Fayston email, clearly stating student name, academic concern logically explained (when, where, who, what, how, why).

8.2.1.3. Email must have a clear title with following format:
ACADEMIC CONCERN: Grade Level / PowerSchool Name / Course Name
Example:
ACADEMIC CONCERN: G10 / LEE, KEN / AP World History

8.2.1.4. Any discussion with the teacher regarding the issue MUST be done through the official email accounts. DO NOT contact the teacher through other digital communication methods.

8.2.2. ACADEMIC ISSUES - ESCALATION

8.2.2.1. If the first series of communication regarding the academic issue is unsatisfactory, then the student can escalate the inquiry to the Academic Director.

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

academic semester unless prearranged extension is provided by the Academic Director for valid reasons (e.g., issue transpires at the end of the semester, etc.).

8.2.2.4.If the first series of communication regarding the academic issue is unsatisfactory, then the student can escalate the inquiry to the Vice Principal.

8.3.STUDENT LIFE ISSUES

8.3.1.Student life issues include reporting on bullying, cyberbullying, physical violence, and any other type of behavioral and social incidents encountered by students.

8.3.2.INITIAL COMMUNICATION

8.3.2.1.All questions, problems or complaints about student life issues should be directed to the Dean of Student Life.

8.3.2.2.Contact the Dean through the official Fayston email, clearly stating student name, the concern logically explained.

8.3.2.3.Email must have a clear title with following format:
STUDENT LIFE CONCERN: Grade Level / PowerSchool Name
Example:
STUDENT LIFE CONCERN: G10 / LEE, KEN

8.3.2.4.Any discussion with the Dean regarding the issue MUST be done through the official email accounts.
DO NOT contact the Dean through other digital communication methods.

8.3.3.STUDENT LIFE ISSUES - ESCALATION

8.3.3.1.If the Dean deems it appropriate, then the case may be escalated to the Vice Principal, or to the Principal.

9. ATTENDANCE POLICY

9.1. At Fayston, students are required and expected to attend all and every mandated school day during the academic year.

9.1.1. This is usually accounted for 180 school days across an academic year, although this may be reduced or increased depending on an academic year.

9.2. At Fayston, student attendance is calculated through the Power School system via accumulation of Attendance Points.
Attendance Points will issued as follows:
9.2.1. All classes & session attended in a school day = 0 Attendance Points
9.2.2. 3/4 classes & session attended in a school day = 0.25 Attendance Points
9.2.3. 1/2 classes & session attended in a school day = 0.5 Attendance Points
9.2.4. 1/4 classes & session attended in a school day = 0.75 Attendance Points
9.2.5. Absences
9.2.5.1. AU (Absence Unexcused) = 1 Attendance Points
9.2.5.2. AE (Absent Excused) = 0.5 Attendance Point
9.2.5.2.1. To receive AE, the student must submit sufficient documentation with an exact date (doctor's notes, etc).
9.2.5.3. SE (School Excused) = 0 Attendance Points

9.3. ABSENCE UNEXCUSED (AU)
9.3.1. Absence Unexcused is any absence without a note from the parents/guardians explaining the reason for absence.
9.3.2. Students are expected to complete and submit all assignments due during the time of AU without any consideration or leniency from teachers.
9.3.3. CONSEQUENCES
9.3.3.1. The student's parents will be contacted immediately to verify the location and safety of the student.
9.3.3.2. If the student has committed truancy, it will be grounds for disciplinary action.
9.3.3.3. Students missing a major assignment (e.g., test, project, essay, etc.) will lose 10% of the maximum grade per school day missed following the homework policy.

9.3.4. MIDDLE SCHOOL TRUANCY PROCEDURE

1st Case	• Meeting with the Dean • Parent email notification by Dean • Detention with the Dean
2nd Case	• Parent call with the Vice Principal • 1 day in-school suspension arranged by the Dean
3rd Case	• Parent meeting with the Principal regarding the student's future at Fayston • 3 day out of school suspension (conditional expulsion) ○ Official record registered on the transcript for unsatisfactory

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

9.3.5. HIGH SCHOOL TRUANCY PROCEDURE

1st Case	• Meeting with the Dean • Parent email notification by Dean • 1 day in-school suspension arranged by the Dean
2nd Case	• Parent meeting with the Principal regarding the student's future at Fayston • 3 day out of school suspension (conditional expulsion) ○ Official record registered on the transcript for unsatisfactory completion of the suspension program at the discretion of the disciplinary committee.
3rd Case	• Immediate expulsion • Official record registered on the transcript

9.4. ABSENCE EXCUSED (AE)

9.4.1. Absence Excused (AE) is any absence with a note from parents/guardians explaining the reason for absence.

9.4.2. Examples include: Child's illness or injury, a family emergency, death of a family member, a governmental issue, a doctor, or a dental appointment that cannot be scheduled before or after school hours, a natural disaster, etc is considered AE.

9.4.3. To change AU to AE, a documented proof of appropriate excuse is required, such as a diagnosis note from a doctor, or other certificates. A simple note from parents without a valid excuse does not suffice.

9.4.4. Students are expected to contact the classroom teachers to complete and submit all assignments due during the time of AE with accommodations or leniency from teachers such as extensions, partial exemption or alternative assessment.

9.4.4.1. Students missing a major assignment (e.g., test, project, essay, etc.) will lose 10% per school day missed unless prior arrangement is made with the classroom teacher.

9.4.4.2. Students will not be penalized for major reasons that cannot be predicted: Child's hospitalization (emergency room), death of a family member, etc.

9.5. TARDY/LATENESS

9.5.1. LATE ARRIVAL

9.5.1.1. If a student arrives after 8:25 am, students need to come to the Dream Hall Office to notify the Attendance Officer, AC and turn in their cell phone before going to their current scheduled class.

9.5.1.2. They will be given a pass to their current scheduled class from the Attendance Officer.

9.5.1.3. If a student fails to notify the Attendance Officer and turn in the cell phone before 10 am, the student will be recorded as absent for the day.

10. FAYSTON SCHOOL LIFE POLICIES

10.1. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

10.1.1.Students must be aware of the student behavior codes, disciplinary procedures and know how they will be dealt with if such codes are breached. Since all students are required to read the updated student handbook each academic year (or semester as needed), ignorance will not excuse students from misbehavior. It is the students' responsibility to carefully study and to refer to the handbook as needed.

10.1.2.If you see a breach of the School Policy or unsafe actions of other students, a student must immediately report it to the Dean before the situation becomes potentially worse.

10.1.2.1.A teacher will give firm verbal warnings to stop the inappropriate action, including a parent email.

10.1.2.2.If the student refuses to comply with the initial warning, then the student will be reported for "Disobedience and rebellious behaviors towards teachers and staff" on the School Policy

Google Docs를 사용하여 게시됨 자세히 알아보기

10.1.2.4.At the discretion and judgment of the Dean, a disciplinary committee may be assembled.

10.2.INTOLERABLE ACTIONS & BEHAVIORS*

10.2.1.Bullying, Drinking, Drugs, School Violence, Smoking, Stealing, Cheating/Plagiarism. Depending on severity at the discretion of the disciplinary committee, consequences may change and lead to immediate expulsion even for the '1st Case'.*

Definition of School Violence and Bullying: From Korean law

10.2.2.1.SCHOOL VIOLENCE: actions committed against students, staff, or school inside or outside of school premises resulting in a physical or mental injury, or damage to property through a battery, assault, confinement, threat, kidnapping, abduction, defamation, insult, extortion, coercion, forced errand, sexual violence, bullying, or cyber-bullying, or with obscene or violent information via an information and communications network.

10.2.2.2.BULLYING: any form of constant or repeated actions whereby a student inflicts physical or emotional harm on a specific student or a specific group of students inside or outside of school premises, and then inflicts pain thereon.

10.2.2.3.CYBER-BULLYING: any form of constant or repeated actions whereby students inflict emotional harm on other students, staff, or school by using the Internet, cell phones or other information and communications devices to reveal personal information about a specific student or to spread lies or rumors about a specific student, and then inflict pain thereon.

10.2.3.REPORTING INSTANCES OF VIOLENCE OR BULLYING

10.2.3.1.Students are expected to immediately report incidents of bullying to the Safeguarding Officer, Vice Principal.

10.2.3.2.Students can rely on staff to promptly investigate each complaint of bullying in a thorough and confidential manner.

10.2.3.3.If the complainant student or the parent of the student feels that appropriate resolution of the investigation or complaint has not been participant in the complaint process.

10.2.4. DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

10.2.4.1. The Student Code of Conduct includes, but is not limited to:

10.2.4.1.1. Any student who engages in bullying may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion. Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken on a case by case basis.

10.2.4.1.2. The procedures for intervening in bullying behavior include, but are not limited, to the following:

10.2.4.2. All staff, students and their parents will receive a summary of this policy prohibiting intimidation and bullying: at the beginning of the school year, as part of the student handbook and/or information packet, as part of new student orientation, and as part of the school system's notification to parents.

10.2.4.3. The school will make reasonable efforts to keep a report of bullying and the results of the investigation confidential.

10.2.4.4. Staff who witness acts of bullying shall take immediate steps to intervene when it is safe to do so. People witnessing or experiencing bullying are strongly encouraged to report the incident; such reporting will not reflect on the target or witnesses in any way.

10.2.5. MIDDLE SCHOOL INTOLERABLE-LEVEL DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

1st Case	● Parent call with the Vice Principal ● 1 day in-school suspension
2nd Case	● Parent meeting with the Principal regarding the student's future at Fayston ● 3 day out of school suspension (conditional expulsion) ○ Official record registered on the transcript for unsatisfactory completion of the suspension program at the discretion of the disciplinary committee.

	1st Stage	Teachers Handling Classroom Issues:

		● Teacher files an incident report
		● Teacher verbal warning to the student
		● Parent email (cc'd to Dean) notification from the Teacher
		● Detention with the Teacher
		  ○ Teachers can typically manage infractions that disrupt the learning environment but do not pose a significant threat to the well-being and safety of students.
		  ■ Disruptive Behavior:
		  ● Talking out of turn, passing notes, or other minor disruptions.
		  ■ Inappropriate Language:
		  ● Use of mild inappropriate language or gestures.
		  ■ Non-compliance:
		  ● Not following classroom rules or instructions after being reminded.
		  ■ Minor Conflicts:
		  ● Small disagreements or conflicts between students that do not escalate to physical or verbal aggression.

		Detention Protocols for Teachers:

		● Documentation: Keep a record of the incident and any actions taken.
		● Communication: Inform parents about the issue and the detention.
		● Reflection: Use detention time for students to reflect on their behavior, perhaps through a reflection sheet or discussion.
		● Follow-up: Monitor the student's behavior and provide additional support if needed.

		Club/Homeroom Time Detention:
		● Description: Students spend their club or homeroom time in a designated detention room instead of participating in club activities or homeroom.
		● Typical Duration: The length of the club or homeroom period.

	2nd Stage	Escalation to Deans for More Serious Issues:

		● Teacher files an incident report
		● Parent email notification from the Dean
		● Detention with the Dean
